January 23, 1971

OTHER NLG v. AG

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

On May 13, 1972, [redacted] advised that the subject is residing at Apartment 36-A, at the student quarters of the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, with JERRY RUBIN and ABBOT HOFFMAN.

b2
b7D

RUBIN and HOFFMAN were two of eight persons indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, Chicago, Illinois, in March, 1969, regarding anti-riot law violations in conjunction with the

NY 105-42122

Democratic National Convention held in Chicago. Both were convicted of violation of the Federal Anti-Riot Laws on February 18, 1970, and were sentenced to two years, one month and nine days in jail. Sentence is presently on appeal.

B. Employment

On February 27, 1972, and April 3, 1972, [redacted] advised that the subject was not gainfully employed.

b2
b7D

C. Identification Record

The records of the Berkeley, California Police Department, the Oakland, California Police Department, and the Chicago Police Department, were reviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and revealed the following arrest information regarding ALBERT:

ALBERT was arrested on November 30, 1966, at Oakland, California, on charges of trespassing and being a public nuisance; sentence was suspended.

ALBERT was arrested on January 14, 1967, at Berkeley, California, on contempt of court charges. The case was dismissed.

On October 24, 1968, the subject was arrested by the Oakland, California Police Department on charges of malicious mischief, trespassing, and disturbing the peace. He was subsequently found guilty of disturbing the peace and given a sentence of 30 days and $200.00.

On February 21, 1969, the subject was arrested by the Berkeley, California Police Department on charges of obstructing walk way and was subsequently fined $125.00.

NY 105-42122

II. ACTIVITIES

On February 21, 1972, [ ] advised that on February 15, 1972, JERRY RUBIN and the subject were guests on a talk show broadcasted over radio Station WBUS, in Miami Beach, Florida. RUBIN indicated that he and ALBERT had recently been in Chile, which he described as having more political freedom than the United States. Both ALBERT and RUBIN fielded a number of questions from the listening audience.

On February 17, 1972, [ ] advised that ALBERT and RUBIN held a press conference in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, on February 16, 1972. ALBERT stated that the Democrats must set a date for the end of the war in Vietnam, and that this group will demand that a date be set. Further that, he and RUBIN are going to bring as many people as they can to Miami during the Democratic Party National Convention to force the Democratic Party and their candidates to set a date for the end of the Vietnam War.

On February 16, 1972, [ ] advised that on February 5, 1972, ALBERT was a member of a group of 150 demonstrators involved in a protest demonstration at Willow Brook State School for the Mentally Retarded, Staten Island, New York. Later in the day ALBERT, JERRY RUBIN attended a demonstration at 49th Street and Fifth Avenue, New York City, protesting conditions in Ireland.

On February 7, 1972, [ ] advised that ALBERT is a member of the Election Year Strategy Information Center, which is to be based in New York City.

The Election Year Strategy Information Center is formerly known as the Allamuchy Tribe, is described as an organization formed for the purpose of coordinating demonstrations at the Republican National Convention, which was to take place in San Diego, California, August of 1972.

NY 105-42122

On March 10, 1972, [ ] advised that the Election Year Strategy Information Center is no longer in existence.

b2

January 27, 1972

On February 27, 1972, [ ] advised that ALBERT is aware of the FBI's interest in him and intends to avoid any involvement which would call attention to him.

On March 8, 1972, [ ] advised that ALBERT had been observed with JERRY RUBIN at 156 Prince Street, New York, New York, in early March, 1972.

b2

On March 16, 1972, [ ] advised that between March 3, 1972, and March 5, 1972, ALBERT attended the national conference of the Red Balloon at the State University of New York, Stony Brook, New York. The purpose of the conference was to form a new mass-base left organization.

On April 12, 1972, Special Agents of the FBI observed ALBERT at an anti war demonstration in front of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, 320 Park Avenue, New York.

On April 19, 1972, a Special Agent, FBI, reviewed an article written by ALBERT which appeared in the University Review. The article was a book review of two new books, one captioned, "The SDS", and the other, "The Age of Paraonia". In the same publication, ALBERT was listed as being a member of the editorial staff.

NY 105-42122

The University Review is described as a paper issued approximately eight times per year, and which is circulated on college campuses. The paper features articles concerning new books, records, and movies, with more recent issues featuring anti-war material aimed at student's appeal.

C. Identification Record

On June 21, 1972 Special Clerk (SC) [redacted] reviewed the records of the Chicago Police Department and ascertained that STEWART EDWARD ALBERT was arrested in that city on August 23, 1968, charged with disorderly conduct. The subject was due in court on September 19, 1968 to answer charges, but when he failed to appear, his bond was forfeited and an arrest warrant was issued. The record further reflected that ALBERT was arrested on December 3, 1969 on a warrant issued September 19, 1968 for bond forfeiture. On December 5, 1969 the warrant was "quashed" and the case discharged.

II. ACTIVITIES

On May 13, 1972, [redacted] advised that an anti-war rally took place on the campus of the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida on May 12, 1972. A minor altercation with unsympathetic Cuban students occurred during the program and a small amount of pepper gas was released, however, no other incidents occurred and no arrests were made. According to [redacted] ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN and STEWART ALBERT participated in this demonstration.

RUBIN and HOFFMAN are two of eight persons indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, Chicago, Illinois in March, 1969 regarding anti-riot law violations in connection with the Democratic National Convention held in Chicago, Illinois; both were convicted of violation of the Federal anti-riot laws on February 18, 1970 and were sentenced to two years, one month nine days in jail. The sentence is presently on appeal.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On May 13, 1972, [ ] stated that as of that date, RUBIN, HOFFMAN and ALBERT stayed in Apartment 36A of the University of Miami Student Quarters. On that date, the above individuals, accompanied by the "groupies", drove to Miami Beach, Florida where they visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming national political conventions. According to [ ] they inspected possible camp sites such as parks and golf courses. b2 b7D

[ ] advised on May 15, 1972 that JERRY RUBIN, ABBIE HOFFMAN and STEWART ALBERT met with Chief of Police at the Miami Beach Police Headquarters. During the meeting they stated it was their desire that the conventions be peaceful. They requested the use of the Bayshore Golf Course as a camp site during the time of the conventions when they will stage a ten-day festival from July 4-14, 1972. They were advised that such a decision would have to be made by the City Manager and RUBIN requested a meeting with him for May 23, 1972. All stated they hoped no attempts would be made to infiltrate their organization. [ ] stated that they advised that they were representatives of the Youth International Party. b2 b7D

The Youth International Party (YIP) also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City, in January, 1968.

According to [ ] following the meeting, RUBIN and ALBERT held a press conference in front of the Miami Beach Police Department Headquarters. b2 b7D

On May 30, 1972, [ ] advised that STEWART ALBERT, ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN were operating the YIP Headquarters from Suite 201, 1674 Meridon Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida where "they were running activities in connection with the forthcoming conventions."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 105-42122

[redacted] on July 11, 1972 advised that between the period July 1-7, 1972 STEWART ALBERT resided at the Albion Hotel, 1650 James Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, which was the new headquarters for the YIP and where plans were formulated for the forthcoming Democratic and Republican Conventions.
